Another Year. Another Opportunity.

At United Way of Benton & Franklin Counties, we are dedicated to creating a community where families can access essential resources and children can excel academically, setting them up for a brighter future. Your support, no matter the size, can truly make a difference.

By contributing any amount from each paycheck, you can help provide crucial resources such as food, diapers, support for crime victims, palliative care, mentoring, and other essential services that directly benefit our local children.

Join us in making a positive impact today. Together, we can help young people realize their full potential.
