Every child deserves the opportunity to grow up with a love of reading. Through the Dolly Parton Imagination Library, children in Benton and Franklin Counties receive a new, age-appropriate book delivered directly to their home each month at no cost to their families. Your sponsorship helps put books into the hands of local children and builds brighter futures, one book at a time.

Every Book Matters.

Your support helps ensure that children across Benton and Franklin Counties have books of their own, build early literacy skills and develop a lifelong love of reading.

Thank you for helping us put more books into the hands of local children–one story, one child and one month at a time.

Sponsor today. Open a book. Open a world of possibilities.
